WHITE GOT FOUR YEARS

For Complicity in the Robbery of the Residence of Lillie Council.

THREE PRISONERS WERE SENTENCED.

The Needs of a Denot Graphically De scribed.-The Critical Illness of Mrs. Lee Britt Reported-Lay and Min isterial Delegates of for Richmond -A Merchant in Trouble.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 12.—(Special)—The record day of County Court. Judge W. J. Kilby presiding, was convened about 10.30 o'clock this morning. William Jones, accused of stealing a trunk and contents, the property of J. S. D. Saul, of Norfolk, from a Norfolk and Carolina excursion train on August 7th, was first arraigned at the bar. Rawles & Briggs appeared for the defense, while the prosecution was conducted by E. E. Holland, Commonwealth's Attorney. After the evidence and argument had been submitted the case was given to the jury, who found the prisoner guilty and fixed his punishment at three years' imprisonment at hard labor in the State peniteutiary.

and axed his punishment at three years' imprisonment at hard labor in the State beniteutiary.

Another jury, composed entirely of buffolk citizens, was empanelled for the rial of John White for housebreaking. This venire was summoned as a conequence of objections raised by S. E. Sverett, counsel, to the other jury. The Dommonwealth's Attorney was assisted in the prosecution by J. N. Burgess. The jury, however, gave, White four years, the same penality yesterday imposed on Saphronia Walker, who was a socritinal, with White in the burglary of Lillie Council's house.

There being no other case the Judge formally passed sentence on Jones, White and Walker. The woman, who weeped so profusely yesterday at the jury's finding, seemid partially releved when she learned that White yould go for an equal term. Adjourned to court in course."

would go too an equal term. Adjourned "to court in course."

It is a notorious fact, and one alluded to by the Commonwealth's Attorney, that a very large proportion of the oriminals which appear before this barare not residents of Virginia. The criminal expenses are chiefly incurred in the prosecution of that trampling, cosmopolitan class whose sustenance is derived by miscelleneous depreds. derived by miscelloneous depreda

NEW DEPOT NEEDED.—The striking need of a new Norfolk and Western lepot in Suffolk is a matter of universal somment. The present crazy, warped, insightly, incommodious, antiquated, epulsive, insignificant and delapidated tructure which rests on the site where depot should stand is a disgrace to he progressive spirit of Suffolk citizens from a distance and the traveling public in general whose impressions are athered from car window views new orm very erroneous opinions of the own's beauty when passing through in the Norfolk and Western. The rection of new depot is a duty the ompany owes its numerous Suffolk atrons.

A Splendid Chance

A Mylendid Chance.
Everybody who is weak, delicate, or sickly wants to get well. Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York City, makes a specialty of treating patients through letter correspondence. The wisest thing all suffering people can do is to write the Doctor, stating just how they feel, mentioning every symptom of which they complain, and he will answer the letter, explaining each symptom and mentoning every symptom or which they complain, and he will answer the letter, explaining each symptom and describing the case so thoroughly that patients understand their complaint as well as though they had talked with the Doctor. He makes his explanations so clear that they cannot help but understand just what ails them, and he tells exactly what to do to get well. It saves a journey to the city and doctor's fees, and costs nothing. Dr. Greene is the most succeessful specialist in curing nervous and chronic discases. He is the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Thousands are being cured through his perfect system of letter correspondence. It has been proved successful.

WAR AGAINST MARRIAGE.

A New Sensation Started in a Very Queer Way.

A New Sensation Started in a Very Queer Way.

Miss Edith Lanchester, of Salvadore, Kingston Hill, England, is the prime cause of a new sensation in the British isles. Miss Lanchester is twenty-four years old, well educated, and good looking. She matriculated at London University, a pretty stiff "exam." and then went as a teacher at the Maria Grey Training School in London, where she was observed to be one of the newest of the new women. Her views on social questions were found to be so advanced that her retirement from the post was rapid. Miss Lanchester's pet aversion was the marriage ceremony. One day she announced to her family that she had made up her mind to take up her abode with James Sullivan, a man far beneath her socially and intellectually. She said she had no intention of becomig Mrs. Sullivan. Then she proceeded to calmiy pack her trunk, at the same time treating her scandalized father and brothers to an impassioned harangue against marriage. She said that she and Sullivan were going to become living object lessons of the utter lack of necessity for any such institution. In vain her father protested against her folly, driven to desperation at last, he caused his daughter to be locked up in the Rochampton lunatio asylum. Subsequently the Lunacy Commissioners ordered her release.

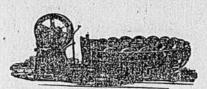

The Pall Mall Gazette points out that the views of Miss Lanchester are held also by Grant Allen, whom no one thinks of clapping into an asylum because of them. The suggestion, however, that Mr. Allen should be attended to has not been received altogether with disfavor.

with disfavor.

All the cranks and faddists are writing to the London papers on this new phase of "Is Marriage a Fallure?" Up to the time the last mail left Liverpool for this country hardly a single social monimaniae was yet to be heard from. Of course the verdict is overwhelmingly in favor of matrimony, but there is an amazing array of queer arguments against it. Some of the women correspondents are of the type whose members would never get an offer of marriage if they lived on forever and advertised for husbands every day of their lives.
